

Your Meeting & Events Partner in the West

Since the very first steam train pulled into the platform, The Hardiman has always been the hub of Galway's business and commercial affairs. Over the years new companies have been created, ideas hatched, and grand plans put into practice right here in this great building. And it's no different today. We offer superb Conference and Event facilities at competitive rates, delivered to the highest standards. Our dedicated Conference Coordinator and team of professional staff will ensure that each corporate function is executed to a tee, with our signature personal touch.

The Hardiman has a number of occasion suites for meetings, conferences or private events for small and large groups. Our Connemara Suite is perfect for conferences, breakfast briefings, awards and gala dinners. Our boardrooms offer excellent meeting facilities. Galway's premier location for meeting and events for over 170 years, The Hardiman continues to deliver the highest quality of service, excellent dining options and an unbeatable location.
